Aria continues to struggle with her life choices and finding her mission in life. As time goes on she's more and more convinced that it involves protecting the people of Baltimore, all of the people of Baltimore, human and supernatural.

Last Breath (The Templar, #2) by Debra Dunbar
This is the second book in the Templar series and it is just as good as the first. The plot is complex and intriguing and makes the book hard to put down. This book does end with a lead into the next story, not really a true cliffhanger, but definitely a 'to be continued'

If you love urban fantasy that is well written with smart, witty, kick-ass characters then this is your kind of book. There is also romance but nothing too cheesy or x-rated. Overall the book has all the makings of a great novel. Can't wait to see where Debra takes Solaris's Templar quest next....
