Since 1943 hundreds of plane and ships, and thousands of people, have disappeared in the ocean between Bermuda and the Florida coast, the Bermuda Triangle. Charles Berlitz set out to investigate and has spoken to numerous people who have escaped the terrifying forces of the Bermuda Triangle.

This book is a description and analysis of racism in Guyana from the pre-colonial era to the present time. There has been oppression by Europeans, Africans and currently East Indians. The study argues that although all three ethnic groups have practiced oppression based on race, the differences between them lie in culture. Emphasis is placed on Hindu racism, which has been reconstituted in the context of Guyana and bears a similarity to Western racism.

The book follows the two children as they embark on an adventure, which begins with the discovery of a hidden witch's haven in a graveyard and Jordan's first encounter with the spirit world - but by know means the first for Sebastian. Then a haunted observatory on the outskirts of town yields a clue - a piece of an intriguing map leading to, what they believe to be, hidden treasure. After collecting the rest of the clues from around the town, Jordan and Sebastian search for the treasure, but instead of rubies, emeralds and gold doubloons, they find themselves lead to a doorway into another world, called the Phantom Realm.

Analysis of political persecution and violation of human rights of the Sikhs in punjab.

To Detective Alexandra Wolfe, the human bone sticking out of the toilet in the camper isn't any big deal. She needs to check out a very old bone in a very old camper...what could go wrong? It seems routine enough, until she finds a police badge buried in the camper's holding tank. When she learns the badge belonged to her sergeant's partner, who'd been buried with full honors-along with his badge-some seven years earlier, she knows she's stumbled on a mystery that's been waiting years to be solved. She has some digging to do. She can feel it in her bones.
